Itinerary

Day 1: Delhi half day tour - Agra

Start your 3 nights 4 days Golden Triangle Tour from your desired location in Delhi, Gurgaon and Noida, from where, we will pick you up by Car. We would take you to the half-day tour exploring the historical monuments of Delhi such as Qutub Minar, Lotus Temple, India Gate and we have planned the drive pass through Indian Parliament and President's House.

Qutub Minar is a 73-metre high tower built by Qutub-ud-Din Aibak in 1193. This tower is the highest tower in India that reflects the glorious Indian history, complete with five storeys and projecting balconies.

The India Gate, previously named as All India War Memorial, was built to pay homage to the 82,000 Indian soldiers of the Indian Army who lost their lives fighting in World War I.

Lotus Temple is notable for its flowerlike shape that has 27 marble petals that look like lotus; it has become a prominent attraction in the city. It is famous for its architecture.

The Parliament of India is the apex supreme legislative organ of the Republic of India. It is a bicameral legislature (law-making body) which consists of the President of India and the two houses: the Rajya Sabha and the Lok Sabha.

President's House popularly known as the Rashtrapati Bhavan is the official home of the President of India located at the Western end of Rajpath in New Delhi.

After the half day Delhi city tour, head to Agra, the city of Taj Mahal, through a 3-hour drive on the ExpressWay. Upon your arrival to Agra, check in to your hotel and relax.

Overnight, stay at Hotel

Day 2: Agra - Jaipur

Visit the Taj Mahal early in the morning to see the spectacular view of the sun rise along with the Taj Mahal and take a guided tour from inside.

Witness the new day of the tour with the glorified Taj Mahal, the epitome of love at the time of sunrise that looks splendid in Sun Rays.

Taj Mahal, which has already marked India's name and added to India's pride, is one of the Seven Wonders of the World, built in the memory of Mumtaz Mahal by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan.

After sightseeing, you would be taken back to the hotel for breakfast. Then we would pay a visit to the Agra Fort.

Agra Fort: Agra Fort is an ancient and historical fort in the city of Agra. It is also known as the Red Fort, this large 16th-century fortress, made out of the red sandstone, is located on the Yamuna River.

After that proceed to Jaipur, at the end of the drive, arrive in Jaipur and check in at your hotel.

Overnight stay at Hotel

Day 3: Jaipur city tour

Start your morning with a tasty breakfast and start discovering the belle of Jaipur. We have planned your visit to the historical monuments such as Amer Fort, Jal Mahal, City Palace, Jantar Mantar and Hawa Mahal.

Amer Fort: Amer Fort made of red sandstone and marble, known for its imaginative Hindu design elements. It is an appealing and luxurious palace, which is laid out on 4 levels, each with its courtyard.

Jal Mahal was built in the year 1799. This historical palace was built by Maharaja Sawai Pratap Singh in the middle of The Man Sagar Lake.

The City Palace is an awesome specimen of architectural brilliance in the city of Jaipur. This Royal City Palace was built in the 18th century by Maharaja Jai Singh II.

Jantar Mantar was built in the year 1734 by the king Sawai Jai Singh II located in Jaipur and has the largest sundial.

Hawa Mahal is known as "The Palace of Winds" or "The Palace of Breeze" is a palace built by Maharaja Sawai Pratap Singh with the red and pink sandstone and the palace sits on the edge of the City Palace, Jaipur.
